Event Description:

This event is an entertaining and lively luncheon with silent and live auctions featuring celebrities from local business, media, politics, sports and entertainment industries as waiters. Each table sponsor hosts a table of 10 generous guests who come prepared to tip their waiters with wild abandon and to bid for the extraordinary and unique auction items.

Waiters seek tips in eccentric ways - pocketing your silverware, withholding your meal, singing, performing and dancing; the antics are endless as waiters will go to great lengths to raise the most money during 90 action-packed minutes. This fierce competition between waiters results in important funds being raised for Family Gateway.

Proceeds benefit the vision that Annette G. Strauss had almost 25 years ago to ensure that the growing number of children and families struggling with homelessness have the resources they need to make positive choices and return to self-sufficiency. Your support is vital and creates a ripple effect by strengthening families, children, schools and the community. ★
